DEATH IS NOTHING AT ALL

READ BY GILLIAN

Death is nothing at all; I have only slipped away into the next room.
I am I, and you are you; whatever we were to each other, we still are.

Call me by my old, familiar name; speak to me in the easy way you always used.

Put no difference in your tone; wear no air of false solemnity or sorrow.

Laugh, as we always laughed, at the little jokes we enjoyed together.
Let my name be ever the household word that it always was; let it be spoken without effect, without the trace of shadow on it.

Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it always was;
there is unbroken continuity.

Why should I be out of mind, because I am out of sight?

I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near; just around a corner.

All is well.
