The Value Of Old Age
read by Gemma

Remember - old folks are worth a fortune -
With silver in their hair, gold in their teeth,
Stones in their kidneys and gas in their stomachs.

I have become a little older since I saw you last
And changes have come into my life.
I am quite a frivolous old girl!!!
I am seeing five gentlemen each day.
A soon as I wake up, Will Power helps me out of bed,
Then I go to see John.
Next, it's time for Mr Quaker who gives me my oats.
They leave and Arthur Ritis shows up and stays the rest of the day.
He doesn't stay in one place very long,
So he takes me from joint to joint.
After such a busy day I am ready for bed with Mr Bacardi.

What a life - and oh yes - I am flirting with Al Zymer.
The vicar came the other day and said that at my age
I should be thinking about the hereafter. I told him, "Oh, I do.
No matter where I am, if I am in the kitchen or upstairs or in the garden,
I ask myself - Now what am I here after?"

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come;
Thy will be done;
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
The power and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.
